By His Excellency
John H. Lynch, Governor

A Proclamation

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION SYSTEM DAY
NOVEMBER 18, 2009

WHEREAS, National Geographic Information System (GIS) Day celebrates the importance of geographic information system technology; and

WHEREAS, GIS Day is a grassroots event, started in 1999 and now celebrated in over 80 countries, that encourages GIS users to showcase real-world applications of this important technology by opening their doors to schools, businesses and the public; and

WHEREAS, GIS Day is celebrated as part of Geography Awareness Week, being held November 16-20, 2009; and

WHEREAS, GIS Day is an opportunity for GIS users to share their knowledge and passion with others and demonstrate the impact that GIS technology is making in our every day lives; and

WHEREAS, Geographic information system technology can be used for scientific investigations, resource management, asset management, Environmental Impact Assessment, Urban planning, cartography, criminology, history, sales, marketing, and logistics;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN H. LYNCH, GOVERNOR of the State of New Hampshire, do hereby proclaim NOVEMBER 18, 2009 as NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION SYSTEM DAY in New Hampshire.

Given this 2nd day of November, in the year of Our Lord two thousand and nine, and the independence of the United States of America, two hundred and thirty-four.

John H. Lynch
Governor
